

Following Jesus (3) Into the Storm

Text: Mark 4:35-41

- Difficulties often catch us off-guard because of the _____ of life.
- Every person experiences _____.
- God _____ our wounds, losses, and grief into something beautiful.
- Jesus cares about your situation, but he's not _____ about it.
- Jesus was asleep because of a lack of _____, not a lack of _____.

Colossians 1:16-17

For Group Discussion:

1. Describe a past "WHAM!" in your life. What was life like when it occurred? What was your response? How did you feel about God? What did you take away from the experience?
2. Read I Thessalonians 4:13. Put some "flesh" on Paul's distinction between those who are hopeful and those who are hopeless in dealing with, not just death, but any struggle that we might experience.
3. Discuss the quote from Terry Rush's book, "Too often we slay the hope we need with our un-thought, 'Yes, but...'" Does God always respond to our needs? If so, in what ways do miss, or reject, God's response? How do we "slay" God's hope?

"Springs will gush forth in the wilderness and streams will water the desert"
Isaiah 35:6

Billy Marshall tells the story of loading his boat at Box Canyon during a fierce wind. He got the boat lined up to go on the trailer, and at the exact time he "goosed it" (if you've never trailered a boat, ask Gerald or Jerry or CE or Jeff, etc. what that means) a huge wave crashed in, lifted the boat, and stuck it in the back of the pickup. Can't you just hear Billy tell that story?

If you're going to catch fish, you have to know how to fish and operate your boat in rough water. Even if you always check the weather before you go out, sometimes an unexpected wind is going to blow, and you have to know how to deal with it.

That's life, folks, not just fishing. And that's where our following Jesus will take us this morning.

What a blessing to be in Jesus, and to share the blessing with each other this morning!

Glenn
