Springs will gush forth in the wilderness and streams will water the desert Isaiah 35:6
Vol. 4 April 4, 2010

Welcome to all this beautiful Easter morn! What a blessing to gather to remember the miracle of Jesus' resurrection from the dead. He promised his disciples that his death would not be the end, and by coming out of the grave after three days he validated all his promises, and now we confidently await his return for us. If death overtakes us, we can have the assurance that we, too, will be resurrected when he returns and will join him in that eternal place.

Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here;
He has risen!

Youth Corner

Wow I can't believe it is already April; time sure does fly by when you're having fun. With spring already here it means summer is right around the corner and I know the youth group can't wait. With camps, mission trip, vacations, and just being out of school: summer one of their favorite times of the year. Summer is one of my favorite times too.

On the line of camp; if an adult is interested in being a counselor at either one of the camps we go to please come and talk to me. We could always use some more help and would really appreciate it.

Have a Blessed Day!

Finishing the Story

Text: Mark 16:1-8

Christ is risen!
He is risen indeed!

- John 20:29
- In Mark's gospel, believing is _____.
- Mark wanted each one of us to write our own _____ to the story.

For group discussion:

1. Remember Andrew, from the book "Blue Like Jazz" referenced this morning? Another thing the author says about Andrew is that he "doesn't cloak his altruism within a trickle-down economic theory that allows him to spend fifty dollars on a round of golf to feed the economy and provide jobs for the poor. He actually believes that when Jesus says feed the poor, he means you should do this directly." (pg. 110) What are some ways we abdicate our disciple-call in Jesus? What are some specific ways we can personally answer that call?
2. Discuss the failure of "faith" in producing Christ-likeness. Why does "faith" seem to not have much of an impact on lifestyle today?
3. How do "I" transform "Easter" into an every-day event?
